Coram:- V.C.DAGA &

Date:- 25th July, 2006

P.C.:-

Heard.

Perused petition.

During the course of hearing, it transpired that the petition involves disputed questions of facts which cannot be gone into the writ jurisdiction of this Court.

The learned Counsel for the petitioner faced with the above situation, after taking instructions from the petitioner, who was present in the Court, sought liberty to withdraw this petition with liberty to approach appropriate forum within two weeks from today. However, he prayed for continuation of interim relief for a period of two weeks.

Considering the submissions and prayer made, we permit the petitioner to withdraw this petition keeping all rival contentions of the parties open.

The interim relief granted by this Court by Order dated 24-6-2006 is to operate for a period of two weeks from today. However, we make it clear that it will be open for the competent forum to examine the prayer for interim relief on its own merits without getting influenced by this Order; whereby interim relief is extended in favour of the petitioner for two weeks.

Petition accordingly stands dismissed as withdrawn with no order as to costs.
